

Titus Women

ALL OF ME FOR ALL OF JESUS

We are women who know the joy of the Spirit-filled life. We live and abide in the love of Jesus, trusting that He is enough to meet every need and satisfy every heart.

The Most and the Least Significant

Dr. Dennis F. Kinlaw

Luke 2:8 – 21

I have come to appreciate the story of the shepherds. I can hear those guys around their fire on that hillside after they had gathered all their sheep together for the night. They may have been saying, “Boy, this is a boring way to live. We will spend the rest of our lives out here instead of down in Jerusalem where things are happening. All we have out here are smelly sheep and shining stars.”

All of a sudden a heavenly being breaks into their world of monotony with the best news that the world has ever heard. The angel declares that if they will run quickly into the city, they will see the One on whom all of history will depend. They will experience personally the greatest event of all time. Those shepherds turn in wonder to look at each other, and then suddenly a whole host of angels appears, singing. Before their song has ended, those shepherds are racing to a stable to see the One about whom prophets prophesied and saints dreamed.

There are moments for all believers when the eternal breaks into the normal routines of daily life—when God himself comes to visit us. On this holy day, are we anticipating his divine presence to break into our lives?

Our prayer for you is that the divine presence of Jesus would break into your life today in a fresh way. May you know the reality of Emmanuel—God with us, our risen Savior and Lord, our Master and our King.

With love this Christmas Day,
